

Future in Flight: Aviation Days
$100 Scholarships Presented by Women Military Aviators
Applicants are due by June 5th, 2026

The Women Military Aviators scholarship for Future in Flight: Aviation Days is designed to support and encourage the next generation of aviation leaders. This short profile application helps better understand each student's interests, goals, and passion for aviation, leadership, and service.

Students selected for scholarship assistance will receive a $100 scholarship made possible through the generosity of Women Military Aviators.

A limited number of eight (8) scholarships are available for female students ages 14 to 18 interested in attending Future in Flight: Aviation Days.

Submitted information, photographs, and participation in Future in Flight: Aviation Days may also be used by Women Military Aviators, National WASP WWII Museum, Skyline Aviation Training Academy, or other event sponsors for educational, promotional, website, social media, and storytelling purposes.

Please submit completed applications to brianapadilla@waspmuseum.org
Applications may also be dropped off at the Museum. (210 Avenger Field, Sweetwater, TX)

Basic Information:

Student Name: _____

Age: _____ Grade Level: _____ School Name : _____

City: _____ State: _____

Student Email: _____ Phone Number: _____

Parent/Guardian Name: _____

Email: _____ Phone Number: _____

Future in Flight: Aviation Days
$100 Scholarships Presented by Women Military Aviators
Applicants are due by June 5th, 2026

Applicants are welcome to use additional space if needed for the attached questions.

Please submit completed applications to brianapadilla@waspmuseum.org

Applications may also be dropped off at the Museum. (210 Avenger Field, Sweetwater, TX)

What interests you most about aviation, aerospace, STEAM, leadership?

Why would attending Future in Flight be meaningful to you?

Is there anything else you would like us to know about you?
